1st Federal to hold annual meet

DID YOU KNOW...

That at the MODEL LAUNDRY you can get a full week's laundry service for an average family of four at the amazing low cost of only $1.48 (that is for about 16 pounds).

CLINICS planned for Bulloch

Clinics on several of the southern crops are being planned for county farmers here by specialists and research workers providing the information at these meetings. One on general field crops is scheduled for January 26, which will include cotton, corn, peanuts, grazing and other such crops. Another is scheduled for February 16 on tobacco. Truck crops and livestock meetings have been requested but not definitely scheduled by the specialists involved.

Of the some 135,000 acres to be planted to crops in the county, some 15,000 will be allotted to cotton, about 13,000 to peanuts, and unless a further reduction is made on tobacco some 4,338 acres will be for tobacco. There are some 20,000 acres in pastures, about half of which is in improved pastures and 11,062 just pastures.

With some 54.5 per cent of the farm lands of the county in timber, probably the best means of increasing the farm income in 1956 and future years will be from this area. The outlook for naval stores, and timber products is more favorable for 1956 than for any of the crops. It will be a good year, from all indications, to work any timber that will produce gum.

All these factors makes it necessary to think in terms of 1956 and the next few years as being a period of "no mistakes" in the farming business. The increasing costs, coupled with the high cash outlay of the present system of farming, makes it more necessary than ever to plan the farm and home operations carefully.

Not Wealthy... Just Wise !

Most people think that the gentleman who owns and drives a new Cadillac must necessarily be blessed with an abundance of this world's goods.

But the truth of the matter is that a great many motorists of relatively modest means—like the happy man you see here—sit at the wheel of the "car of cars."

For wisdom and practicality lead to Cadillac—just as surely as prominence and prosperity!

Listen, for a moment, to this remarkable assembly of facts—and see if you don't agree.

The Series Sixty-Two Coupe . . . the beautiful and inspiring motor car pictured above . . . costs just a few dollars more than many cars in the "medium-price" bracket.

Cadillac's dependability is so extraordinary that the car is virtually free from all but the purely routine requirements of service.

A Cadillac stretches a gallon of gasoline over so many miles that it is actually the rival of much smaller, lighter cars in this regard.

And a Cadillac will retain its value over the years better than any other automobile in the land.

The conclusion is, we think, self-evident: Cadillac ownership is not only wonderful and thrilling—but sound and sensible as well.

Why not stop in soon for a look and a ride?

You'll discover the most beautiful Cadillac ever built . . . the finest-performing Cadillac of all time . . . and the greatest value in Cadillac history.

That's Cadillac's magical combination for 1956 —and it's waiting for you now in our showroom.

Students from all elementary and high schools in the First District are eligible to present exhibits. All entries will be judged and special awards will be made. Winners in the district fair will go on to the state fair later in Atlanta.

Slight Increase in Enrollment Winter Quarter

Approximately 70 new students have enrolled for winter quarter, bringing the total number of students to 751, slightly higher than last quarter's figure, according to Miss Viola Perry, registrar.

The new students almost exactly matched the number of fall quarter students who graduated or failed to return for other reasons. The total fall quarter enrollment figure was 750.

Miss Perry pointed out that some of the new students are just beginning their college education, some are old students who are returning after absences, but a majority are transfers from other institutions.

Figures in the registrar's office show there are 280 freshmen, 154 sophomores, 179 juniors and 135 seniors presently enrolled. Miss Perry expects a few more students to enter before the last day of registration, January 9.

Farm Bureau FB member asks about bonding airplane crop dusting services

"Why can't operators of airplane dusting service be put under bond to warrant a farmer getting what he pays for?" W. W. Mann asked the Brooklet Farm Bureau Wednesday night. Mr. Mann enumerated several reasons why in many instances farmers felt that they did not get a good job, or what they paid for, when they had their crops dusted with a plane. There is no doubt but what a plane can dust crops just as well or maybe better than other machines, but some of the operators that have been here in the past have been lax in keeping their contracts with farmers. Mr. Mann pointed out that John N. Rushing Jr., the Brooklet president, assured Mr. Mann that this group would make a special effort to help with this problem.

It was some 10 years ago that Mr. Mann asked for about the same help to get the tax on gasoline used in farm tractors and machines used on the farm refunded. It took some three or four years to get the law enacted, but it is now paying back the tax on all gasoline used on the farm when applied for by farmers.

Mr. Rushing asked Ed I. Wynn, principal of the Brooklet elementary school, what he thought the community house used also as a lunch room for the school, needed most in the way of equipment. Mr. Wynn thought a new stove was the most urgent need. The Farm Bureau voted to help buy the stove, as much as possible but not less than $50 to be donated. Plans for 1956 were discussed, all of which amounted to a special effort to have programs worked out at least a month in advance so the group would know what to expect at the next meeting.

J. H. Wyatt and R. P. Mikel reported that the American Farm Bureau was a very grim session, one that no farmers left for fear they would miss a point that would tend for a bit more optimistic outlook for 1956.

William Cronley, member of the rural telephone board, reported that work was still going on with the telephone building and that the phone installations were about a month behind the contractor's construction work.

DENMARK did not have a regular meeting in January.

Broucek Holds Piano Clinic
 Jack Broucek, associate professor of music will conduct piano teacher clinics at Griffin and Cartersville this month. In a workshop program he will discuss new trends and methods and new teaching materials with the piano teachers. The district clinics are sponsored jointly by the Georgia Music Educators Association and the State Department of Education.

Music Festival Scheduled For College Campus

Preliminary plans are now underway for the annual Region Five Music Festival scheduled on the Georgia Teachers College campus Thursday and Friday, March 1 and 2.

Jack Broucek, associate professor of music, is the general festival chairman, and the entire music faculty serves on the festival committee.

The program, which last year attracted 5,350 elementary and high school pupils from 33 counties includes presentations by bands, choruses, vocal ensembles, piano recitals, and chamber twirling. High school participants will receive ratings and comments by a panel of judges and elementary groups will receive comments. Certificates will be awarded participating groups and individuals.

Detailed plans will be announced later.

Pennington In Science Confab
 Tully Pennington, of the Georgia Teachers College science division, participated in which was scheduled for Tuesday night. However, Lester Waters, the new president, did meet with a small group to discuss plans for 1956. No definite plans are available for reporting until after the group meets in February to go over them.

MIDDLEGROUND
 Middleground named Benny Earl Deal as their outstanding young farmer to be entered in the Junior Chamber of Commerce activity program.

J. Doy Akins, the new president, along with the other new officers, E. B. Dixon and J. W. Jones prepared supper for Thursday night, "Willow Trout" on demand from the group at the December meeting. Mr. Akins seems to be one of the top fish fryers in the county, especially on pond suckers. He can fix them so they are easy to eat and taste as well.

W. C. Hodges, the county president, advised the Middleground group that Blue Cross-Blue Shield representatives had been invited to start work in the county, now that these programs are available to local farm people for the first time. He thought they would be working here before the middle of January.

He also gave a rather discouraging report on the American Farm Bureau convention, in which it was too much of a Republican trend to please farmers from the South. Mr. Hodges announced that the county officers, J. H. Wyatt and C. M. Cowart, were being asked to go with him to appear before the State Legislature on January 16 and 17 along with a group from all the counties in the First and Eighth Congressional Districts.

Mr. Hodges met with all the President Visits Fla. Workshop

Dr. Zach S. Henderson, president of Georgia Teachers College, has been appointed a spokesman for the staff of Christian Workers School at the Riverside Park Methodist Church in Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 5-9.

Salute to Georgia Counties

Johnson County Old Union Singing Convention

Perhaps because Johnson County is such a pleasant, prosperous example of a typical Georgia farm county, it is a center for country music singing. The annual Old Union Singing Convention, once held at Idylwild Park near Johnson County Seat Wrightsville, meets again in Johnson County this June. Thousands have attended annually for 60 years. The old Parsons plantation, one of Georgia's largest and most beautiful, lies on the banks of the Oconee River in Johnson.

In Johnson County and throughout Georgia, the U.S. Brewers Foundation works constantly to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interests of the people of Georgia, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing "self-regulation" program.

Home Demonstration Council holds 9th annual meet here

At the First Baptist Church of Statesboro on January 4, the Bulloch county clubs held the ninth annual banquet. About 65 ladies attended.

The Denmark club was hostess. The decorations were beautiful, consisting of chrysanthemum, ivy and lighted candles.

Mrs. A. J. Trappnell gave the devotional reading the second chapter of Titus. She also read a piece entitled "Christians Compared," which is as follows:

"A lot of Christians are like wheelbarrows—not good unless pushed. Some are like canoes—they need to be paddled. Some are like kites—if you don't keep a string on them, they will fly away."

"Some are like footballs—you can't tell which way they will bounce next."

"Some are like balloons—full of wind and ready to blow up."

"Some are like trailers—they have to be pulled."

"Some are like a good watch—open face, pure gold, quietly busy and full of good works."

The DENMARK club served a delicious dinner.

Now, during the dormant season, is the best time to plant pecan trees in Georgia, according to George Ford, horticulturist for the Agricultural Extension Service. He said they should be planted as late as March in the northern half of Georgia, but should not be planted later than February in the southern part of the state.

SAVING WITH THE FAMILY MILK COW

A family of two children and two adults needs at least three quarts of milk a day. This will cost around 75 cents, or $27.30 a year. Dairy specialists point out that the milk cow that will average three quarts a day can be fed entirely on grazing and roughage, which will cost not over 25 cents a day, or less than $100 a year.

Food price surveys indicate that it takes $1.14 today to buy what $1 bought in the store during the 1947-48 period.

Peanuts, which are the third largest crop in Georgia, were grown on 558,000 acres in the state last year.

FOOD SPENDING

Prior to World War II, Americans were spending about 23 per cent of their income, after taxes, for food. Today, this same quantity and quality of food could be bought for 17 per cent of American families' spendable income. However, today we are spending 25 per cent of our incomes, after taxes, on food.
